

VOL. LV

OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY EVENING, MARCH 14, 1902

SUCCESSOR TO THE LATE J. A. FILLMORE

William J. Martin of the Call Chosen For the Place.

VIRING WAS NOT SELECTED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 14.—The directors of the North Shore railway have finally decided on a successor to the late general manager, Jerome A. Fillmore. The man chosen for the responsible place is William J. Martin, business manager of the Call. His selection was made several days ago, and while the directors of the road and the new manager decline to discuss the appointment, it is now known that Martin has already accepted it and will enter upon the duties of his new office some time during the next three weeks, or possibly a week or so later, for it is said that he has asked for time to settle up his affairs as business manager for John D. Spreckels.

Some days ago Post announced that the directors of the North Shore road were considering the names of two men for the vacancy and that one of them was Viring of the Market street road. The other man was Martin, and after carefully weighing the respective merits of the two it was finally decided that while the former may have had more experience in traffic business, his contemporaries in the managerial contest possessed qualities that better fitted him to represent the railroad in dealing with the public.

Accordingly Martin was favored, and forty-eight hours after a notification that his services were wanted he accepted.

BURIED A HATCHET IN HIS WIFE'S HEAD

Then He Beat the Woman's Brains
Out With a Poker.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., March 14.—Seized with sudden insanity, Lase Yerkey of Flint, Dordridge Cove last night buried a hatchet in his wife's head and shoulders and then beat her brains out with a poker. After killing her he cut his own throat with a razor and although still alive he will die. He is violent in spite of his injuries and has to be held with ropes.

WHY THE TALL BLONDE BANGED THE LITTLE BLACK

Bang! And the seasoned derby that covered the crown of a very small and very black man caved as if a pile driver had struck it. The blow was delivered by a tall, muscular blonde, who accompanied the stroke with a considerable epithet indicative of her opinion of the color, genealogy and honesty of the object of her attack.

It all occurred on the stairway coming down from Justice Stetson's courtroom shortly after noon. The courtroom had just discharged a verdict of a considerable bunch of litigants, lawyers, constables, witnesses and others. When the fracas came the street was gained with a rush. Constable Weidner interfered with the blonde female's pugnacity, and the lady bawled the stroke with a rapid fire of epithets. A white escort of the lady blonde showed a disposition to take a hand, and a tall, thin mulatto elbowed in the press with remarks to the effect that he didn't intend to be left at the post if there was to be a fight. There was an angry derby of the little black man was the only thing that suffered damage, and it was out in a condition to be seriously injured. Finally the wrangle subsided and the angry group separated.

The trouble all grew out of a law suit over a race track deal. The woman, who is known as Pedro Sanchez, who is sometimes called Jose, sued the black man to recover an alleged debt of $33. The defendant's name is George Ashton. He is a well known character on the race courses. The Sanchez woman loaned Ashton $3 to save his horse from creditors. This loan was all repaid save a few dollars, but Ashton won several hundred dollars with the horse. Miss Sanchez claimed an interest in the winnings. Ashton repudiated the balance owed on the loan, and Justice Stetson decided that the woman had no further claim on the defendant. But the plaintiff got in the last blow and she lost out.

JOHN A. BRITTON TELLS ABOUT THE OAKLAND GAS STOCK.

In reference to the reported negotiations for the sale of the stock of the Oakland Gas, Light and Heat Company to the California Gas, Light and Heat Company, President John A. Britton of the Oakland Company today said:

"The matter of a sale of the stock of this company to the corporation known as the California Gas and Electric Company has been under discussion by the Board of Directors of the Oakland Gas, Light and Heat Company, based upon certain propositions, which cannot now be made public, as no definite action has been taken.

"Should a proposition be made that would be satisfactory to the directors of this company, they would merely suggest to the stockholders a plan of action, as it must be known that the directors cannot sell any part of the corporation without the consent of the stockholders.

"The possibility of such a sale being made is not in my power to even discuss. The officers of a corporation are servants of the stockholders and subject to their will.

"The Oakland Company enjoys the credit now, as it always has, of being a safe investment proposition, and has never been regarded as a speculative one. Its stockholders have faith in the company and its officers and have never been ready to sell on any provocation of suggested competition, but have steadfastly maintained their holdings, as is evidenced by the few sales made and the many stockholders among whom the shares are divided.

"Any action with reference to the proposition in question can be safely left to their decision, as it will be, of course, should a favorable offer be made."

MANY EXCURSIONISTS ARE ON THEIR WAY TO CALIFORNIA.

SALT LAKE, Utah, Mar. 14.—Two trainloads of Utah excursionists, including over 150 members of the choir of the Salt Lake Tabernacle, left here this morning for the Oregon Short Line for California, where ten days will be spent. The excursion originally planned was for the choir of the Mormon Tabernacle alone, but was augmented by delegations from scores of Utah towns, and when the trains pulled out this morning they carried over 500 excursionists. At Ogden, where the trains were switched on to the Union and Central Pacific, a large crowd of Ogden excursionists joined the party. The first stop will be made at Sacramento tomorrow afternoon. San Francisco, Monterey, the Leland Stanford University buildings, Palo Alto and other points of interest will be visited. Services will be held by the excursionists at San Francisco Saturday, probably in the Temple of Music, Dr. J. E. Tammage preaching the sermon. The Tabernacle choir will give concerts at all stopping places.

SENSATIONAL STORY TOLD BY MRS. A. J. MORRISON.

While on the Witness Stand She Recounts the Story of a Wretched Life—
Given Small Alimony.

The wife of Mrs. Catherine A. Morrison, mother of A. J. Morrison, who for twenty years was cashier of the Palace Hotel, came up for hearing this morning in Judge Ogden's court with a view to securing alimony, counsel fees and expenses pendente lite, in her suit for divorce from her husband.

She Wants Alimony.

Mrs. Morrison asks for $100 alimony, $250 counsel fees and costs in the sum of $55.

The defendant, as well as the mother of Mrs. Morrison and the two daughters of the parties to the suit, were present in court.

Mrs. Morrison took the stand and displayed some bitter feeling against her husband, alleging that she could not live with him and declaring that she preferred to take up her abode elsewhere than in her former home because she did not want to even meet her husband.

Will Give Her a Home.

This brought out a voluntary offer from M. C. Chapman and Fred Clift, counsel for Morrison, that the defendant would allow the petitioner to use his house and furniture at their home and that he would not go near the place pending the termination of the case.

This offer had a visible effect upon Judge Ogden, especially when he considered the request of Mrs. Morrison that she be provided with a separate home pending the suit.

A Sensational Story.

In answer to questions from Judge Ogden, Mrs. Morrison told a sensational story of her alleged treatment by her husband which terminated in her incarceration in the Stockton asylum on the ground of insanity, and of the reduced circumstances in which she is now living.

She Would Not Return.

"Where are you living now?" asked the Court.

"Eight street, between Jefferson and Grove," was the answer.

"Have you a house there?"

"I have a room."

"Do you prefer living that way to going to your home?"

"No, I would not."

"Would you return to your home if you knew you could return there without opposition?"

"No, I would not."

"Why?"

"Because I do not want to meet my husband."

"Did he tell you that you should not return?"

"No, he did not."

Said She Was Insane.

"Why do you dislike to meet your husband?"

"Because of the manner in which he treated me."

"What did he do?"

"He took me from my home in a carriage, telling me he was going to give me a ride. Then he drove me to the Receiving Hospital and I was locked up in a room on the supposition that I was insane."

"Who was the Judge who committed you?"

"I don't know. I have heard it was Judge Green."

"Don't you remember?"

"No. I remember one physician. There were three men. They came to my room and stood together."

"Did you understand what they were doing?"

"No. I can't say I did."

"You are now discharged from the asylum?"

"Yes. I ought never to have been sent there."

"You have no desire to go back to your home?"

"No."

"Why not?"

"I don't trust my husband."

"Why do you not think he would do it?"

"What are you afraid?"

"Fears He Would Drug Her."

"Is that the way you account for the fact that you were sent to the asylum before?"

"Yes."

"This offer then shown by M. C. Chapman that Mrs. Morrison had been discharged from the asylum on a writ of habeas corpus, because of the defect in the law which made the commitment invalid."

Mrs. Morrison then told how she had gone to her home in this city after her discharge from the asylum and had there found her two children. She asked them if they would prefer to live with her to living with their father, and both replied they would prefer to live with her.

She also showed that in the room in which she was living there were also her mother and children, all of whom ate and slept there. There also, except on rare occasions, when they went to restaurants for lunch, the meals for the four were cooked. When the defendant did not exactly how much it cost her to live per month. She thought it was about $30. She expressed a preference for a home for herself.

She Gets Small Alimony.

There was a desultory discussion after which Judge Ogden decided that he would allow the petitioner the use of her home which was understood that the defendant promised not to interfere with Mrs. Morrison's occupancy of it pending the termination of the case.

Attorney Snook of Snook & Church, who, with Attorney Miller, appeared for Mrs. Morrison, asked that the defendant be enjoined from visiting the home pending the suit.

Judge Ogden said that he doubted that he could issue an order which would keep a husband out of his home, in such a case and from seeing his children. Such orders had been issued, but he doubted that the aim of equity was long enough to reach it.

Attorney Snook said that he and Mr. Chapman would not object to a judgment by which the defendant could see her children at some other place than at the home.

Judge Ogden then allowed the petitioner $40 a month for maintenance.

There was a voluminous answer filed to the charges for alimony, but they were summarily denied, especially the charges of cruelty. It admitted that Morrison had property valued at $15,000, but only about $200 in cash. The plaintiff asserted that the defendant was worth $20,000.

YOUNG BICYCLE THIEVES ARE BELIEVED TO BE BEHIND BARS.

The police have in custody three San Francisco messenger boys, whom they believe have been responsible for the recent numerous theft of bicycles throughout the city. The boys are William Chabanski, his brother, Leon Chabanski, and Adolph Chase.

It is claimed by the police that the boys came frequently to Oakland and never went back to San Francisco empty handed. It was learned that they were disposing of wheels at second-hand stores and pawnshops in the metropolis, and

MERCHANTS ARE CALLED TO TIME.

An Open Letter Sent to the San Francisco
Association.

WHY NOT CALL REGULAR MEETINGS.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—According to the tenor of an open letter addressed this morning to President Frank J. Symmes of the Merchants' Association, there is at least one member of that organization dissatisfied with the failure of the directors to call quarterly meetings as required by the constitution. That member is William A. Cubery, who wrote Mr. Symmes as follows:

"The constitution (Art. V.) requires that 'regular meetings shall be held every three months.' No meeting has been held since September 16, 1901."

"Many members desire to know why the constitution has thus been ignored."

"Please enforce this section by calling a meeting at an early date."

"There are various subjects to consider: 'Chinese Exclusion act.' 'City water rates.' 'City ownership of the Geary-street railroad.' 'The advisability of reducing the dues of the Association to 50 cents per month, and other important matters.'"

"The Association has an income of over $15,000 per annum, and its members have a right to expect some grand results from so grand an income. It cannot rely upon past laurels; it must win new ones."

"The Merchants' Association can be an enduring monument to its able former, J. Richard Freid, if it will continue to promote the public good; but it cannot prosper, or even exist, if it does not purge itself of its lethargy and work for the general welfare."

President Symmes and Secretary L. M. King of the Association conferred this morning and prepared a note in reply to Mr. Cubery. They will lay the matter before the directors at the next meeting for official consideration.

Mr. Symmes said to a TRIBUNE representative: "We have held two meetings of the Association since the election of officers and the annual dinner. 'The others have been passed over by reason of the fact that the members would not attend. When the directors are in doubt, they take a vote of the Association by the postal-card system, which gets a large expression of opinion from a meeting of twenty or thirty men out of a membership of 1,200."

"The Association is not lethargic, and it is not in a position to say that there has been but one meeting set for the directors when a quorum failed to appear."

FIELD MARSHAL GOES TO AFRICA

Wolseley Will Go to the Boer Country on a Private Trip.

LONDON, March 14.—Field Marshal Lord Wolseley will start for Cape Town tomorrow. Although the officials deny that his trip is anything but a private visit, gossip continues that a private visit, possibly connected with the military situation. It is pointed out that Lord Wolseley's knowledge of South Africa, gained as a fighter and administrator, might be highly useful to Lord Kitchener, either at the base (Cape Town) or at Pretoria.

Lord Wolseley himself says his trip is entirely private.

Colonel Frank Rhodes and Arthur Rhodes, brothers of Cecil Rhodes, and Lady Methuen will be passengers on the steamer which will take Lord Wolseley to Cape Town.

BUILDING IS BURNED.

HELD SALOON KEEPER UP WITH RAZOR.

John Lang Has a Lively
Time in an Oakland
Saloon.

HE IS CAPTURED BY JOE GHIRARDELLI.

John Lang, a desperate character, tried to hold a saloon-keeper up with a razor last night, and he will be charged with robbery. He was arrested by Policeman Cockerton, and in order to hold him he was charged with drunkenness. This morning Judge Smith fined him $5 or three days in prison.

Enters the Saloon.

It was shortly before midnight that Lang entered the Royal saloon at 1455 Seventh street. He drew an ugly looking razor and ordered Jack Cereseto, the proprietor, to throw up his hands at the same time demanding that he hand over $4.50 from the cash register. Seeing that his assailant had nothing more dangerous than a razor, Cereseto started for a club at the end of the bar and Lang walked out of the place.

Caught by Joe Ghirardelli.

Joe Ghirardelli, who was in the place, started after the would-be robber, and overhauled him half a block away with the razor still in his hand. Policeman Cockerton appeared upon the scene at the same time and Lang was placed under arrest.

Before he entered the saloon Lang was seen with two other strangers loitering about the entrance to the place. The police are now looking for his companions, believing that they may be Eastern crooks, who have just arrived in Oakland.

OLD VS. THE NEW.

Narrow Escape From a Big Row Among the Artists at Hopkins.

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 14.—It is the full realization of a long, long dream—the opening of the forty-first exhibition of the San Francisco Art Association at the Hopkins Art Institute.

The doors of the noble institution on the hill have been thrown wide, the artists have laid down brush and palette and prepared for the great, and herein materializes the "new movement in art."

There have been hints and rumors for some time past of a revolution brewing. Once or twice the smoldering antagonism has burst into newspaper flames. Until yesterday it was not believed that the dissatisfaction was more than local.

It was vanishing day at the academy galleries and nearly all the artists, anxious to see how they had been "hung," were present. Then in the afternoon the storm broke. An indignation meeting was held impromptu, and voices were raised in defiant protest. Had not wise counsel prevailed a dozen or more canvases would have come down from the walls and been vanted from the galleries by the artists.

The old school against the new. The men who have stood for years in the eyes of the public as the standard bearers of art, the men whose work in the past has been the gospel of art, the men who have given to San Francisco many splendid creations and excellent ideas against the younger set of painters who have broken away from the traditions of the Hopkins school or have never come within the range of its influence. On the one hand are such well known names in California's art history as Matthews, Roth, Laidner, Stanton, Bacon, Peck, Chittenden, McCormick and Dickman; opposed are the painters who have been heard of and heard from less frequently, but who have been forcing themselves by powerful work upon public attention. There are among the number G. P. Flaxson, Matteo Sennar, Blenden R. Campbell, Morris Delme, Marion Drewe, Janvier T. Martinez and Otto Mix. After a hard fight as to which side knew the business best peace reigned and the pictures still hung.

TREATY FOR ISLANDS.

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, Mar. 14. The Folketing (Lower House of Parliament) by 88 to 7 approved the treaty providing for the sale of the West Indies to the United States. The treaty now goes to the Landthing, or Upper House.

TEST CASE THAT WILL INTEREST PRISONERS.

Merchants Had a Law Passed to Prevent Trickery and Now a Lawyer Tries to Upset It.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—Attorney George D. Collins will take an initiative step toward bringing before the State Supreme Court a question involving the validity of a certain statute and the liberty of a large number of offenders serving terms in the prisons and penitentiaries.

The Test Case.

He is down on the calendars of Judge Lawlor's Court for argument in a petition to set aside the judgment and to call the commitment in the case of the People vs. P. J. Winn, who was convicted of the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses and sentenced to seven years' imprisonment at Folsom Prison.

Point to Be Raised.

The point that Collins will raise is that the crime of obtaining money under false pretenses is not punishable by commitment to State Prison, in that it is only a misdemeanor and only punishable by imprisonment in the county jail.

Merchants Made Law.

Originally the law of California regarded this character of offense as a misdemeanor, but in 1839 the merchants of San Francisco, after having suffered many losses through trickery, had a bill passed in the Legislature, declaring the offense a felony and punishable in the State Penitentiaries.

BOSTON STRIKE ABOUT ENDED.

A Little Controversy Over Longshoremen Yet to Be Adjusted.

BOSTON, Mar. 14.—With high hopes expected by the news that the big strike which has prevailed for four days had been ended by an agreement between the strikers and employers, the thousands of men who had been idle since Monday last made their way to their usual places of employment early today. While the teamsters and the longshoremen who had struck in sympathy with the freight handlers found plenty of work waiting for them, the laborers who had been laid off were disappointed in being told that they were not needed as new men. As this meant the only vacant places would be filled and that the pay would be only $1.50 a day, the freight handlers withdrew for consideration. A little controversy was imposed upon the longshoremen.

The situation sent the labor men in haste to the State House for a conference with Governor Crane and later prompted the Governor to call the railroad and steamship officials into consultation, which he urged the laborers to be patient.

Judge Read, at the request of Governor Crane, issued the following statement at 2:45 P. M. "This is a large question, involving many interests and a reasonable time will be needed for adjustment. All parties are anxious for a settlement. If the public and the press will be patient and give the officers time to accomplish it, there is little doubt that an equitable settlement will be effected. Extreme action should be deprecated. (Signed) WARREN A. READ, Chairman of the Board of Arbitration and Conciliation."

A LITTLE BIG WASTE.

DISTINGUISH between economy and wisdom. Sitting at home, to save shoe-leather is economy, but it is scarcely wisdom. In the same way, doing without Ivory Soap is economy but it isn't wise; your risks are greater than all possible saving. Every cheap soap contains free alkali. Now, free alkali will eat its way through the new oil cloth on the kitchen floor. Imagine, then, what it will do in a single Monday's washing! Is such economy wise?

BOXING TO-NIGHT.

Scientific Contest Promised Between Young Gibbs and Moss La Fontaine.

Tonight in the old Exposition Building the Acme Club will give its regular boxing entertainment with Moss La Fontaine, of Montana, and "Young" Gibbs, the Cleveland, Ohio, light weight, who is at present making his home in this city, hatched up for the main event. In the boxing across the bay Gibbs is best liked, but that is nothing new for La Fontaine whose experience has brought him into the ring on many occasions the short end only to be returned the winner.

There is not much lustre or fireworks in the preliminary advertising of the fight tonight between Gibbs and La Fontaine, but unless all signs and all fighting "dope" fail the contest will be none the less interesting from a spectacular standpoint. Both men are on their mettle and they have it in them to put up a hard and scientific struggle. It will not be surprising, therefore, if the fight proves to be one of the hardest struggles ever seen in Oakland. There will be two preliminaries preceding the main event.

The West Oakland Club has arranged a program of four round contests to take place Thursday evening, March 20th, which should provide some exciting amusement. There will be six contests of the four round limit, ending with a main event of six rounds, seven fights in all. The entertainment is presented under the style of the San Francisco Club, Bay City's and the Hayes Valley Club across the bay and should be a treat for the local enthusiasts.

All the contestants are in active training for their engagements. Reserved seats will be put on sale at Bercovich's cigar store, 14th and Broadway, beginning Tuesday. The general admission has been fixed at 50 cents. The public will have the same privileges as the club members on the evening of the contest.

AT THE RACES.

Waterscratch Runs an Improved Race With Birkenruth in the Saddle.

Waterscratch was not left at the post yesterday at Emeryville. It was ridden by Birkenruth and got away from the barrier in good shape and was beaten only a head at the wire by The Giver, who was lucky to get up on the rail in one of the best races decided yesterday. The showing of Waterscratch was marked by the fact that he was against Horton a few days ago, when handled by Jockey Fear. He was a well backed horse yesterday, a fact that indicates what little confidence betters and the public have in the riding of Horton when astride favorites.

Horton rode Mike Strauss yesterday and the horse was heavily played at in going to the post with 3 to 1 quoted against him. No mistakes were made in the handling of Mike Strauss. The odds

WILL ENTERTAIN HAYWARDS LODGE

NATIVE DAUGHTERS OF OAKLAND PLAN A CHARMING RECEPTION.

HAYWARDS, March 14.—The members of Haywards Parlor, No. 122, N. D. G. W., will tonight attend a reception to be given in their honor by the Native Daughters of Oakland. The reception will be given at Eli's Hall in Oakland. It will be attended by nearly all the members of Haywards Parlor and an enjoyable time is promised. The reception is the out come of a most cordial friendship which exists between the two parlors. Haywards Parlor was highly pleased when the reception was announced, and the members regard it as a very high compliment to an organization which is as yet so young.

The reception will include refreshments and possibly dancing. WOODMEN WILL ASSIST. Saturday night a degree team from Haywards Lodge of Woodmen will assist in conferring what is known as the "Oriental Degree of Humility" at a high links to be given by Mt. Eden Camp at its Wigwam at Mt. Eden. An Oakland lodge will also assist in the affair, which promises to be of more than usual interest. Fully forty members of the order will take the degree, which is reported to be very severe and trying to the nerves.

A large number of prominent Woodmen are expected to be present, among whom are County Clerk Frank Jordan, Tom Robinson, clerk of Oakland Camp, No. 94, and State Organizer W. L. Temple.

Following the business of the evening, which will consist of taking the forty members through the hair-raising ordeal, there will be a banquet. A BIG TOMATO PATCH. Jones & Killoran, who have a large place near Decoto on which they raise nearly all the tomatoes and cucumbers shipped from that station, have secured a lease on 200 acres of land between Decoto and Hayward, and will plant this large tract with tomatoes this season. They are now negotiating with the Southern Pacific Company to have a spur line track run on the tract to accommodate shipping for the vicinity. Should the siding be built, it will probably result in making that place a shipping center for the entire district.

ARRANGING ENTERTAINMENTS. It has been suggested by the members of the Young Men's Social Club of this place to hold a series of entertainments shortly. No definite action has been taken in the matter, however. Should the entertainments be given they will in all probability consist of musical affairs, and include literary exercises of merit. The club is one of Haywards most flourishing organizations.

NOTES AND PERSONALS. John Stanton recently sold six acres of his place near Castro Valley. Charles Prowse, Ole Johnson and C. B. Harmon have been appointed to appraise the estate of Domingo C. de Mel. Miss Lena Bennett has been recently visiting friends in Hayward. J. T. Stone, who has been very ill for some time, is again about the streets. Miss Dorothy Brown has returned from a visit to Contra Costa county.

THREE WOMEN ARRESTED FOR DRUNKENNESS.

The names of three women charged with drunkenness were upon the Police Court docket. Kate Kennedy, who frequently ornaments the dock, was fined $5 or six days, and Margaret Griffin, who also makes her appearance periodically, was fined $2 or six days. The third charge of drunkenness against Frances Hart, who was arrested upon complaint of her husband, was stricken from the docket as she had been taken to a hospital for treatment.

THE STARVATION PLAN

Of Treating Dyspepsia and Stomach Troubles is Useless and Unscientific.

The almost certain failure of the starvation cure for dyspepsia has been proven time and again, but even now a course of dieting is generally the first thing recommended for a case of indigestion or any stomach trouble.

Many people with weak digestion, as well as some physicians, consider the first step to take in attempting to cure indigestion is to restrict the diet, either by selecting certain foods and rejecting others or to cut down the amount of food eaten to barely enough to keep soul and body together, in other words the starvation plan is by many supposed to be the first essence.

All this is radically wrong. It is foolish and unscientific to recommend dieting, and it is equally foolish to recommend starvation because indigestion itself starves for want of food. The body needs abundant nutrition, plenty of good, wholesome, properly cooked food, and a sufficient amount of rest, to assist the weak stomach to digest it. This is exactly the purpose for which Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are given, and the true reason why they cure the worst cases of stomach trouble.

That a sufficient amount of wholesome food and after each meal take one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets to promptly digest it. In this way the system is nourished and the overworked stomach rested, because the tablets will digest the food whether the stomach works or not. The gain of the active digestive principle in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets being sufficient to digest 4,000 grains of meat, eggs or other albuminous food. Dr. Harlandson and Dr. Redwell recommend these tablets in all cases of defective digestion because the tablets and dislodge in them are absolutely free from animal matter and other impurities, and being pleasant to the taste are as safe and harmless for the child as for the adult. All drug stores sell this excellent preparation, and the daily use of them after meals will be of great benefit, not only as an immediate relief but to permanently build up and invigorate the digestive organs.

SELLS QUARRY AT SAN LEANDRO

TOWN TRUSTEES FAIL TO PURCHASE M'GARAHAN PROPERTY.

SAN LEANDRO, Mar. 14.—Yesterday morning a deal was closed between J. H. Ravick, the developer and J. McGarahan, who owns the quarry, which is located at the head of Estuillo avenue. With the consummation of this deal the proposition of the Town Trustees, who were contemplating the purchase of the quarry for the town, has fallen through. The Trustees had gone so far as to investigate the quarry. Early in the week they made a trip to the place, it being their intention to bring the matter up at the next meeting which will be held Monday night of next week. It was thought by purchasing the quarry and using the rock to improve the streets of San Leandro that some of the money could be saved to the town and at the same time they could own an establishment which might be of some use to the town. The purchase price, The exact amount paid for the quarry is not known.

GAVE A BINGO PARTY. Last night the ladies of the Branch Chapter, No. 1 of the Women of Woodcraft, gave a "bingo" party at Masonic Hall. This affair was one of the most successful of musical affairs, and was attended by a large number of members and friends. A similar party has never been witnessed in this place before last night's entertainment. There were also musical features during the evening. Refreshments were served.

NOTES OF INTEREST. Mrs. M. F. Copp was in town recently attending to the estate of her late husband. A family of Alameda was visiting friends in San Leandro recently. R. H. Harty has announced his intention of becoming a candidate for Town Clerk in the coming election.

MORTGAGES ARE LIFTED

and you are permitted to pay for them on the same terms.

If you can afford to live in a lodging house and pay room rent you can afford to own a home, be you married or single, old or young.

Thousands of persons pay twice as much for rent as we charge to build them a home.

OWNERSHIP IS CHEAPER THAN RENT. It costs money to move. "Three moves is equal to a fire." Did you ever figure out how much money you ought to have in bank to enable you to pay interest?

No ordinary wage earner can afford to THROW AWAY $10 per month, the following table shows the amount of money renters THROW AWAY and never see again:

$10 per month $120 per year is 7 per cent on $1,714
12 " " 144 " " 7 " " 2,059
15 " " 180 " " 7 " " 2,591
18 " " 216 " " 7 " " 3,085
20 " " 240 " " 7 " " 3,424

NOTICE—The last column of figures shows the amount of money you should have invested at 7 per cent interest in order to enable you to become a renter.

BE YOUR OWN LANDLORD. Whenever you pay us $5.50 we give you $5 worth of credit on your home. We trust you 16 years and 8 months, but if you want to pay us sooner that is your privilege.

RATE TABLE
Valuation of Property	Application Fee	Monthly Cost Before Maturity	Monthly Cost After Maturity	Time required to complete purchase of home (May be shortened at pleasure of members by increasing payment)

No one is required to wait 16 years to pay us. They can pay us the NEXT DAY after they get into their home if they like. The reason we use the term "16 years and 8 months" is because it would take a person that long to pay for a $1000 house at $5 a month.

Pay us as soon as you like, and we'll be glad of it; but if you have a hard time to get along we'll wait on you 16 years and 8 months.

MINE OWNERS EXPECT TO RECEIVE UNTOLD WEALTH.

The owners of the White Bear group of mines near Downsville, expect to secure untold wealth from their operations. The owners are A. S. Macdonald of Oakland, A. N. They claim to have found, after the year's search, the lost Port Wine Channel, part of which made the owners of the famous Monte Cristo mine millionaires.

On other subjects Davis seemed to be sane. He wrote, as he calls her, to "his girl, Jennie Johanna Williams, who resides at 844 Bush Street, San Francisco, requesting her to come and get a ring which he had worn and which he had let for her.

REMEMBER OUR UNIVERSITY.

Mrs. Collis P. Huntington deserves praise for her gift of $250,000 to the University of California, but one cannot restrain a wish that she had selected the University of California as the object of her beneficence. She has a right to give where she chooses, of course, but her husband was identified with California so long and successfully that it would be singularly appropriate to see a portion of the vast wealth he accumulated given to an institution representative of the State. It was here that Collis P. Huntington founded and built his fortune; his name is indelibly associated with the building of the first transcontinental railway, and with the construction of the largest railway system on the Pacific Coast; he was for half a century closely associated with the business activities of California, and was intimately connected with its industries and development. Therefore there is a natural feeling that California has first claim when Mrs. Huntington gives to the cause of education. It is only a sentimental claim, it is true, but it is one that commands interest and is impregnated with native justice. Mrs. Huntington could not do a handsomer thing for the memory of her husband nor one more befitting his career and its remarkable achievements than to make a substantial gift to the University of California. There will be no quarrel with her for giving elsewhere, but she should not fail to remember that her fortune is associated with California in a way that calls for recognition.

HARVARD'S SHAME.

A profound respect should be shown to the doctor of the snacking of the form of the rank. The decision of the Senate Committee on Inter-Oceanic Canals to favorably report by a majority of 11 to 4 the Hepburn bill for the construction of the Nicaragua Canal sets that measure far on the road to final passage; nevertheless the opposition under the resourceful leadership of Senator Hanna is strong and determined. Should the opponents of the bill avail themselves of the rules of the Senate to fight off a vote they can stave off action till the bill expires with Congress. It is to be hoped, however, that the opposition will not assume such an extreme phase.

MARTIN OBJECTED TO WEARERS OF STARS

John J. Martin of West Oakland, who was paroled as cured from the Stockton Insane Asylum a few weeks ago, was returned to that place today by Deputy Sheriff Striker. He had relapsed into a violent state of insanity since his return to his family. This morning, when Officer Mackey arrested him, Martin became abusive and involved against all officers and was not intimidated of the local guardian of the peace.

OPEN OAK STREET TO THE LAKE.

H. B. BELDEN MAKES A PROPOSITION TO THE CITY COUNCIL.

An effort will soon be made to open a public street from the junction of Oak and Lake streets in a northeasterly direction to the shore of Lake Merritt.

The matter was brought up by H. B. Belden, the capitalist, whose home is at the southwest corner of Oak and Lake street, at a meeting of the Street Committee of the City Council last evening. The distance is only eighty feet and it is Belden's idea to open a street eighty feet wide.

"For half a mile," said Belden, "there is not a street opened through to the lake, and if our proposed boulevard around the lake is ever constructed, there will be no entrance to it. A man named Burnham has recently purchased the property and he purposes to build a residence where the streets should be opened. My idea is to have the city condemn the property and fix an assessment district to pay for it. If the proposed bridge to Adams Point is ever built it must be from the foot of the proposed street."

Mr. Belden said he would bring the matter formally before the Council next Monday night.

There were several other matters of importance before the committee. Resolutions were read and acted upon as follows:

Granting Mrs. E. A. Mackie permission of sixty days' extension of time to cut down trees on Forty-fourth street. Recommended for adoption.

Appropriating $900 to repair the sewer in East Seventeenth street. Laid over till July 1st.

Directing that a gum tree at Seventh and Union streets be removed. Recommended for adoption.

Appropriating $450 to repair the bituminous cross streets between Franklin and Clay street, Nineteenth street and the water front. Recommended favorably.

Giving fifteen days' notice to sidewalk Twenty-eighth street. Favorably recommended.

Communications were disposed of as follows:

From A. Vahstrom and others to repair the bulkhead at the end of East street. Referred to the City Attorney.

From J. Nicholls for a sewer on Silver street from Thirty-eight to Moss street. Laid over.

From H. E. Pennell for a sewer in Moss avenue from Silver to Gold streets. Laid over.

From J. P. Embury for an extension of sixty days' time to sidewalk Twenty-eighth street. Recommended favorably.

From R. W. Gorrill in regard to the brewery at Nineteenth street and Telegraph avenue extending beyond the property line. Referred to the City Attorney and City Engineer.

COUNCIL WANTS TO KEEP PLEDGE

MR. WIXSON PAYS HIS COMPLIMENTS TO MAYOR BARSTOW.

The Ordinance and Judiciary Committee of the City Council last evening decided unanimously to recommend for passage to print the ordinance appropriating $4,000 to pay the cost of the sewer from Tennessee Creek of the northern boundary line.

When the measure was read, City Engineer Turner suggested that the Mayor desired to have the matter go over till the next fiscal year.

"I know the Mayor is opposed to it," he opposed to everything," said Wixson, "but I am in hopes of securing eight votes to pass it over his veto. Our honor is at stake, if we have any, because we have pledged ourselves individually to do the work. I am in favor of this ordinance even if some of the statutory salaries must go over till the next fiscal year."

Turner said it would require about three months to do the work. Schaffer said the Mayor, if he had a plan to save the threatened deficit, should communicate his views to the Council and not wait till ordinances were passed and then veto them.

"If we are going to play fair," said Schaffer, "let us do this work. We pledged ourselves to do it and it ought to be done."

The ordinance regulating the use and construction of cellar doors was laid over till after July 1st to avoid the expense of printing it during the present fiscal year.

TREASURER TAYLOR WANTS ARITHMOMETER.

At the meeting of the Auditing and Finance Committee of the City Council last evening the petition of City Treasurer Taylor for an arithmometer for $350 to purchase an arithmometer for the office was laid over till after July 1st, owing to the threatened deficit in the city's finances.

The claims of the Sunset Telephone & Telegraph Company for $250 for rental of phones used by the fire alarm and police telegraph departments were recommended to be allowed.

COTTON MILLS ENTER A PROTEST

KENT AND WATKINSON ARE RECOMMENDED FOR SALOON LICENSE.

An unsuccessful effort was made last evening at the meeting of the License Committee of the City Council to lay over several applications for saloon licenses for two weeks. Among the applicants were those of M. W. Watkinson, the ex-Councilman, W. M. Kent and Cuddeyer & Cavanaugh.

A motion was made to lay the matter over for two weeks. "You're not trying to do up Billy Watkinson, are you?" asked Cuddeyer.

There was no reply and a vote was taken. Boyer and Wixson voted in favor of the license and Bishop and Courtney voted against it. Bishop, however, subsequently changed his vote and the application was favorably recommended.

The votes on the applications of Kent and of Cuddeyer & Cavanaugh resulted in Courtney voting to lay them over and Bishop, Boyer and Wixson declaring themselves in favor of them.

The application of Perry & Peters for permission to conduct a saloon at 905 Park avenue was laid over. A protest against the place from the California Cotton Mills contained the following:

"We employ a large number of people, many of whom are boys and girls, and it would be a great pity to put any additional temptations in their way here. The property for which a license is asked is right near the railroad tracks in fact, the door opens right on the railroad right of way. There is no room whatever to enter or leave the premises by the south side, except on the railroad right of way. This makes the saloon license for this place all the more undesirable and dangerous."
